11 (A) consider the potential benefits and costs to consumers and covered 12 persons, including the potential reduction of consumers’ access to consumer 13 financial products or services, resulting from such rule; and 14 (B) consult with the Federal banking agencies, or other Federal agencies, 15 as appropriate, regarding the consistency of a proposed rule with prudential, 16 market, or systemic objectives administered by such agencies.

17 (3) EXEMPTIONS.—

18 (A) IN GENERAL. —The Agency, by rule or order, may conditionally or 19 unconditionally exempt any covered person or any consumer financial product or 20 service or any class of covered persons or consumer financial products or 21 services, from any provision of this title, any enumerated consumer law, or from 22 any rule thereunder, as the Agency deems necessary or appropriate to carry out 23 the purposes and objectives of this title taking into consideration the factors in 1 subparagraph (B).

2 (B) FACTORS.—In issuing an exemption by rule or order as permitted in 3 subparagraph (A), the Agency shall as appropriate take into consideration the 6 (ii) the volume of transactions involving consumer financial 7 products or services in which the covered person engages;

8 (iii) the extent to which the covered person engages in one or more 9 financial activities; and

10 (iv) existing laws or regulations which are applicable to the 11 consumer financial product or service and the extent to which such laws or 12 regulations provide consumers with adequate protections.

13 (c) EXAMINATIONS AND REPORTS.—

14 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Agency may on a periodic basis examine, or require 15 reports from, a covered person for purposes of ensuring compliance with the 16 requirements of this title, the enumerated consumer laws, and any rules prescribed by the 17 Agency thereunder or under the authorities transferred under subtitles F and H, and 18 enforcing compliance with such requirements.

19 (2) CONTENT OF REPORTS.—The reports authorized in paragraph (1) may include 20 such information as necessary to keep the Agency informed as to—

21 (A) the compliance systems or procedures of the covered person or any 22 affiliate thereof, with applicable provisions of this title or any other law that the 23 Agency has jurisdiction to enforce; and

1 (B) matters related to the provision of consumer financial products or 2 services including the servicing or maintenance of accounts or extensions of 3 credit.

4 (3) USE OF EXISTING REPORTS.—In general, the Agency shall, to the fullest extent 5 possible, use—

6 (A) reports that a covered person, or any affiliate thereof, has provided or 7 been required to provide to a Federal or State agency; and 8 (B) information that has been reported publicly.

9 (4) REPORTS FROM NONDEPOSITORY COVERED PERSONS.—The Agency may 10 require reports regarding financial condition from covered persons which are not subject 11 to the jurisdiction of a Federal banking agency or a comparable State regulator for the 12 purpose of assessing the ability of such person to perform its obligations to consumers.

13 (5) ACCESS BY THE AGENCY TO REPORTS OF OTHER REGULATORS.—

14 (A) EXAMINATION AND FINANCIAL CONDITION REPORTS.—Upon providing 15 reasonable assurances of confidentiality, the Agency shall have access to any 16 report of examination or financial condition made by a Federal banking agency or 17 other Federal agency having supervision of a covered person, and to all revisions 18 made to any such report.

19 (B) PROVISION OF OTHER REPORTS TO AGENCY.—In addition to the reports 20 described in paragraph (a), a Federal banking agency may, in its discretion, 21 furnish to the Agency any other report or other confidential supervisory 22 information concerning any insured depository institution, any credit union, or 23 other entity examined by such agency under authority of any Federal law.

1 (6) ACCESS BY OTHER REGULATORS TO REPORTS OF THE AGENCY.—Upon 2 providing reasonable assurances of confidentiality, a Federal banking agency, a State 3 regulator, or any other Federal agency having supervision of a covered person shall have 4 access to any report of examination made by the Agency with respect to the covered 5 person, and to all revisions made to any such report.

6 (7) PRESERVATION OF AUTHORITY.—Nothing in paragraph (3) shall be construed 7 to prevent the Agency from conducting an examination authorized by this title or under 8 the authorities transferred under subtitles F and H or pursuant to any enumerated 9 consumer law.

10 (d) EXCLUSIVE RULEMAKING AND EXAMINATION AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any 11 other provision of Federal law other than subsection (f), to the extent that a Federal law 12 authorizes the Agency and another Federal agency to issue regulations or guidance, conduct 13 examinations, or require reports under that law for purposes of assuring compliance with this 14 title, any enumerated consumer law, the laws for which authorities were transferred under 15 subtitles F and H, and any regulations thereunder, the Agency shall have the exclusive authority 16 to prescribe rules, issue guidance, conduct examinations, require reports, or issue exemptions 17 with regard to any person subject to that law.

18 (e) PRIMARY ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY.—

19 (1) THE AGENCY TO HAVE PRIMARY ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY.—To the extent 20 that a Federal law authorizes the Agency and another Federal agency to enforce that law, 21 the Agency shall have primary authority to enforce that Federal law with respect to any 22 person in accordance with this subsection.

23 (2) REFERRAL.—Any Federal agency authorized to enforce a Federal law

1 described in paragraph (1) may recommend in writing to the Agency that the Agency 2 initiate an enforcement proceeding as the Agency is authorized by that Federal law or by 3 this title. The recommendation shall be accompanied by a written explanation of the 4 concerns giving rise to the recommendation.

5 (3) BACKSTOP ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY OF OTHER FEDERAL AGENCY.—If the 6 Agency does not, before the end of the 120-day period beginning on the date on which 7 the Agency receives a recommendation under paragraph (2), initiate an enforcement 8 proceeding, the other agency may initiate an enforcement proceeding as permitted by that 9 Federal law.

10 (f) EXCEPTIONS.—

11 (1) DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.—Nothing in this title shall affect the authorities of 12 the Department of Justice.

13 (2) PERSONS REGULATED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.—

14 (A) IN GENERAL.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as altering, 15 amending, or affecting the authority of the Securities and Exchange Commission 16 to adopt rules, initiate enforcement proceedings, or take any other action with 17 respect to a person regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The 18 Agency shall have no authority to exercise any power to enforce this title with 19 respect to a person regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

20 (B) CONSULTATION AND COORDINATION.—Notwithstanding subparagraph 21 (A), the Securities and Exchange Commission shall consult and coordinate with 22 the Agency with respect to any rule (including any advance notice of proposed 23 rulemaking) regarding an investment product or service that is the same type of

1 product as, or that competes directly with, a consumer financial product or service
2 that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Agency under this title or under any other 3 law.

4 (3) PERSONS REGULATED BY THE COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION.—

5 (A) IN GENERAL.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as altering, 6 amending, or affecting the authority of the Commodity Futures Trading 7 Commission to adopt rules, initiate enforcement proceedings, or take any other 8 action with respect to a person regulated by the Commodity Futures Trading 9 Commission. The Agency shall have no authority to exercise any power to 10 enforce this title with respect to a person regulated by the Commodity Futures 11 Trading Commission.

12 (B) CONSULTATION AND COORDINATION.—Notwithstanding 13 subparagraph (A), the Commodity Futures Trading Commission shall consult and 14 coordinate with the Agency with respect to any rule (including any advance notice 15 of proposed rulemaking) regarding a product or service that is the same type of 16 product as, or that competes directly with, a consumer financial product or service
17 that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Agency under this title or under any other 18 law.

19 (g) NO AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE USURY LIMIT.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as 20 conferring authority on the Agency to establish a usury limit applicable to an extension of credit 21 offered or made by a covered person to a consumer, unless explicitly authorized by law.

22 SEC. 1023. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION; CONFIDENTIALITY RULES.

23 (a) COLLECTION OF INFORMATION.—In conducting research on the provision of

1 consumer financial products or services, the Agency shall have the power to gather information 2 from time to time regarding the organization, business conduct, and practices of covered persons.

3 In order to gather such information, the Agency shall have the power—

4 (1) to gather and compile information; and

5 (2) to require persons to file with the Agency, in such form and within such 6 reasonable period of time as the Agency may prescribe, by rule or order, annual or 7 special reports, or answers in writing to specific questions, furnishing information the 8 Agency may require; and

9 (3) to make public such information obtained by it under this section as is in the 10 public interest in reports or otherwise in the manner best suited for public information 11 and use.

12 (b) CONFIDENTIALITY RULES.— The Agency shall prescribe rules regarding the 13 confidential treatment of information obtained from persons in connection with the exercise of 14 its authorities under this title and the enumerated consumer laws and the authorities transferred 15 under subtitles F and H.

16 SEC. 1024. MONITORING; ASSESSMENTS OF SIGNIFICANT RULES; REPORTS.

17 (a) MONITORING.—

18 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Agency shall monitor for risks to consumers in the 19 provision of consumer financial products or services, including developments in markets 20 for such products or services.

21 (2) MEANS OF MONITORING.—Such monitoring may be conducted by 22 examinations of covered persons, analysis of reports obtained from covered persons, 23 assessment of consumer complaints, surveys and interviews of covered persons and 1 consumers, and review of available databases.

2 (3) CONSIDERATIONS.—In allocating its resources to perform the monitoring 3 required by this section, the Agency may consider, among other factors—

4 (A) likely risks and costs to consumers associated with buying or using a 5 type of consumer financial product or service;

6 (B) consumers' understanding of the risks of a type of consumer financial 7 product or service;

8 (C) the state of the law that applies to the provision of a consumer 9 financial product or service, including the extent to which the law is likely to 10 adequately protect consumers;

11 (D) rates of growth in the provision of a consumer financial product or 12 service;

13 (E) extent, if any, to which the risks of a consumer financial product or 14 service may disproportionately affect traditionally underserved consumers, if any; 15 or

16 (F) types, number, and other pertinent characteristics of covered persons 17 that provide the product or service.

18 (4) REPORTS.—The Agency shall publish at least 1 report of significant findings 19 of its monitoring required by paragraph (1) in each calendar year, beginning in the 20 calendar year that is 1-year after the designated transfer date.

21 (b) ASSESSMENT OF SIGNIFICANT RULES.—

22 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Agency shall conduct an assessment of each significant 23 rule or order adopted by the Agency under this title, under the authorities transferred

1 under subtitles F and H or pursuant to any enumerated consumer law that addresses, 2 among other relevant factors, the effectiveness of the rule in meeting the purposes and 3 objectives of this Act and the specific goals stated by the Agency. The assessment shall 4 reflect available evidence and any data that the Agency reasonably may collect.

5 (2) REPORTS.—The Agency shall publish a report of its assessment not later than 6 3 years after the effective date of the rule or order, unless the Agency determines that 3 7 years is not sufficient time to study or review the impact of the rule, but in no event shall 8 the Agency publish a report thereof more than 5 years after the effective date of the rule 9 or order.

10 (3) PUBLIC COMMENTED REQUIRED.—Before publishing a report of its assessment, 11 the Agency shall invite public comment on recommendations for modifying, expanding, 12 or eliminating the newly adopted significant rule or order.

13 (c) INFORMATION GATHERING.—In conducting any monitoring or assessment required by 14 this section, the Agency may gather information through a variety of methods, including by 15 conducting surveys or interviews of consumers.

16 SEC. 1025. AUTHORITY TO RESTRICT MANDATORY PRE-DISPUTE
17 ARBITRATION.

18 The Agency, by rule, may prohibit or impose conditions or limitations on the use of 19 agreements between a covered person and a consumer that require the consumer to arbitrate any 20 future dispute between the parties arising under this title or any enumerated consumer law if the 21 Agency finds that such prohibition, imposition of conditions, or limitations are in the public 22 interest and for the protection of consumers.

23 SEC. 1026. EFFECTIVE DATE.

1 This subtitle shall become effective on the designated transfer date.

2 Subtitle C—Specific Authorities

3 SEC. 1031. PROHIBITING UNFAIR, DECEPTIVE, OR ABUSIVE ACTS OR 4 PRACTICES.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Agency may take any action authorized under subtitle E to 6 prevent a person from committing or engaging in an unfair, deceptive, or abusive act or practice 7 under Federal law in connection with any transaction with a consumer for a consumer financial 8 product or service.

9 (b) RULEMAKING REQUIRED.—The Agency may prescribe rules identifying as unlawful 10 unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices in connection with any transaction with a consumer 11 for a consumer financial product or service. Rules under this section may include requirements 12 for the purpose of preventing such acts or practices.

13 (c) UNFAIRNESS.—The Agency shall have no authority under this section to declare an 14 act or practice in connection with a transaction with a consumer for a consumer financial product 15 or service to be unlawful on the grounds that such act or practice is unfair unless the Agency has 16 a reasonable basis to conclude that the act or practice causes or is likely to cause substantial 17 injury to consumers which is not reasonably avoidable by consumers and such substantial injury 18 is not outweighed by countervailing benefits to consumers or to competition. In determining 19 whether an act or practice is unfair, the Agency may consider established public policies as 20 evidence to be considered with all other evidence.

21 (d) CONSULTATION.—In prescribing a rule under this section, the Agency shall consult 22 with the Federal banking agencies, or other Federal agencies, as appropriate, concerning the

1 consistency of the proposed rule with prudential, market, or systemic objectives administered by 2 such agencies.

3 SEC. 1032. DISCLOSURES AND COMMUNICATIONS.

4 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Agency may prescribe rules to ensure the appropriate and 5 effective disclosure or communication to consumers of the costs, benefits, and risks associated 6 with any consumer financial product or service.

7 (b) REASONABLE DISCLOSURES AND COMMUNICATIONS.—Subject to rules prescribed by 8 the Agency, a covered person shall, with respect to disclosures or communications regarding any 9 consumer financial product or service, make or provide to a consumer disclosures and 10 communications that—

11 (1) balance communication of the benefits of the product or service with 12 communication of significant risks and costs;

13 (2) prominently disclose the significant risks and costs, in reasonable proportion 14 to the disclosure of the benefits;

15 (3) communicate significant risks and costs in a clear, concise, and timely manner 16 designed to promote a consumer’s awareness and understanding of the risks and costs, as 17 well as to use the information to make financial decisions; and 18 (4) comply with standards prescribed by the Agency.

19 (c) BASIS FOR RULEMAKING.—In prescribing rules under this section, the Agency shall 20 consider available evidence about consumer awareness, understanding of, and responses to 21 disclosures or communications about the risks, costs, and benefits of consumer financial products 22 or services.

23 (d) COMBINED MORTGAGE LOAN DISCLOSURE.—Within 1 year after the designated

1 transfer date, the Agency shall propose for public comment rules and model disclosures that 2 combine the disclosures required under the Truth in Lending Act and the Real Estate Settlement 3 Procedures Act into a single, integrated disclosure for mortgage loan transactions covered by 4 those laws, unless the Agency determines that any proposal issued by the Board of Governors
5 and the Department of Housing and Urban Development carries out the same purpose.

6 SEC. 1033. SALES PRACTICES.

7 The Agency may prescribe rules and issue orders and guidance regarding the manner, 8 settings, and circumstances for the provision of any consumer financial products or services to 9 ensure that the risks, costs, and benefits of the products or services, both initially and over the 10 term of the products or services, are fully and accurately represented to consumers.

11 SEC. 1034. PILOT DISCLOSURES.

12 (a) PILOT DISCLOSURES.—The Agency shall establish standards and procedures for 13 approval of pilot disclosures to be provided or made available by a covered person to consumers 14 in connection with the provision of a consumer financial product or service.

15 (b) STANDARDS.—The procedures shall provide that a pilot disclosure must be limited in 16 time and scope and reasonably designed to contribute materially to the understanding of 17 consumer awareness and understanding of, and responses to, disclosures or communications 18 about the risks, costs, and benefits of consumer financial products or services.

19 (c) TRANSPARENCY.—The procedures shall provide for public disclosure of pilots, but the 20 Agency may limit disclosure to the extent necessary to encourage covered persons to conduct 21 effective pilots.

22 SEC. 1035. ADOPTING OPERATIONAL STANDARDS TO DETER UNFAIR, 23 DECEPTIVE, OR ABUSIVE PRACTICES.

1 (a) AUTHORITY TO PRESCRIBE STANDARDS.—The States are encouraged to prescribe 2 standards applicable to covered persons who are not insured depository institutions or credit 3 unions to deter and detect unfair, deceptive, abusive, fraudulent, or illegal transactions in the 4 provision of consumer financial products or services, including standards for—

5 (1) background checks for principals, officers, directors, or key personnel of the 6 covered person;

7 (2) registration, licensing, or certification;

8 (3) bond or other appropriate financial requirements to provide reasonable 9 assurance of the ability of the covered person to perform its obligations to consumers;

10 (4) creating and maintaining records of transactions or accounts; or 11 (5) procedures and operations of the covered person relating to the provision of, 12 or maintenance of accounts for, consumer financial products or services.

13 (b) AGENCY AUTHORITY TO PRESCRIBE STANDARDS.—The Agency may prescribe rules 14 establishing minimum standards under this section for any class of covered persons other than 15 covered persons which are subject to the jurisdiction of a Federal banking agency or a 16 comparable State regulator. The Agency may enforce under subtitle E compliance with 17 standards adopted by the Agency or a State pursuant to this section for covered persons operating 18 in that State.

19 (c) CONSULTATION.—In prescribing minimum standards under this section, the Agency 20 shall consult with the State authorities, the Federal banking agencies, or other Federal agencies, 21 as appropriate, concerning the consistency of the proposed rule with prudential, market, or 22 systemic objectives administered by such State authorities or such agencies.

23 SEC. 1036. STANDARD CONSUMER FINANCIAL PRODUCTS OR SERVICES.

1 (a) CHARACTERISTICS OF STANDARD CONSUMER FINANCIAL PRODUCTS OR SERVICES.—

2 Subject to rules adopted by the Agency under this section, a standard consumer financial product 3 or service is one that—

4 (1) is or can be readily offered by covered persons that offer or seek to offer 5 alternative consumer financial products or services;

6 (2) is transparent to consumers in its terms and features;

7 (3) poses lower risks to consumers;

8 (4) facilitates comparisons with and assessment of the benefits and costs of 9 alternative consumer financial products or services; and 10 (5) contains the features or terms defined by the Agency for the product or 11 service.

12 (b) OFFERING STANDARD CONSUMER FINANCIAL PRODUCTS OR SERVICES.—

13 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Agency may adopt rules or issue guidance regarding the 14 offer of a standard consumer financial product or service at or before the time an 15 alternative consumer financial product or service is offered to a consumer, including:

16 (A) warnings to consumers about the heightened risks of alternative 17 consumer financial products or services; or

18 (B) providing the consumer a meaningful opportunity to decline to obtain 19 the standard consumer financial product or service.

20 (2) RULEMAKING REGARDING THE OFFERING OF STANDARD CONSUMER FINANCIAL 21 PRODUCTS OR SERVICES.—The Agency may not require a covered person to offer a 22 standard consumer financial product or service at or before the time an alternative 23 consumer financial product or service is offered to a consumer unless the Agency adopts

1 rules, after notice and comment, regarding the features or terms of the product or service.

2 (3) GENERAL APPLICABILITY.—Rules adopted by the Agency under this section 3 shall apply only to any covered person who —

4 (A) voluntarily offers or provides a consumer financial product or service 5 that is of the same type, or in the same class, as a standard consumer financial 6 product or service; or

7 (B) maintains an account or has a relationship with a consumer involving a 8 product or service that is substantively similar to the standard product or service.

9 SEC. 1037. DUTIES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—

11 (1) The Agency shall prescribe rules imposing duties on a covered person, or an 12 employee of a covered person, or an agent or independent contractor for a covered 13 person, who deals or communicates directly with consumers in the provision of a 14 consumer financial product or service, as the Agency deems appropriate or necessary to 15 ensure fair dealing with consumers.

16 (2) CONSIDERATIONS FOR DUTIES.—In prescribing such rules, the Agency shall 17 consider whether—

18 (A) the covered person, employee, agent, or independent contractor 19 represents implicitly or explicitly that it is acting in the interest of the consumer 20 with respect to any aspect of the transaction;

21 (B) the covered person, employee, agent, or independent contractor 22 provides the consumer with advice with respect to any aspect of the transaction;

1 (C) the consumer’s reliance on any advice from the covered person, 2 employee, agent, or independent contractor would be reasonable and justifiable 3 under the circumstances;

4 (D) the benefits to consumers of imposing a particular duty would 5 outweigh the costs; and 6 (E) any other factors as the Agency considers appropriate.

7 (3) DUTIES RELATING TO COMPENSATION PRACTICES .— The Agency may 8 prescribe rules establishing duties regarding compensation practices applicable to a 9 covered person, employee, agent, or independent contractor who deals or communicates 10 directly with a consumer in the provision of a consumer financial product or service for 11 the purpose of promoting fair dealing with consumers. The Agency shall not prescribe a 12 limit on the total dollar amount of compensation paid to any person.

13 (b) ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS.—Any rule prescribed by the Agency under this 14 section shall be enforceable only by the Agency through an adjudication proceeding under 15 subtitle E or by a State regulator through an appropriate administrative proceeding as permitted 16 under State law. No action may be commenced in any court to enforce any requirement of a rule 17 prescribed under this section, and no court may exercise supplemental jurisdiction over a claim 18 asserted under a rule prescribed under this section based on allegations or evidence of conduct 19 that otherwise may be subject to such rule. The Agency, the Attorney General, or any State 20 attorney general or State regulator shall not be precluded from enforcing any other Federal or 21 State law against a person with respect to conduct that may be subject to a rule prescribed by the 22 Agency under this section.

23 (c) EXCLUSIONS.—This section shall not authorize the Agency to prescribe rules

1 applicable to—

2 (1) an attorney licensed to practice law and in compliance with the applicable 3 rules and standards of professional conduct, but only to the extent that the consumer 4 financial product or service provided is within the attorney-client relationship with the 5 consumer; or

6 (2) any trustee, custodian, or other person that holds a fiduciary duty in 7 connection with a trust, including a fiduciary duty to a grantor or beneficiary of a trust, 8 that is subject to and in compliance with the applicable law relating to such trust.

9 SEC. 1038. CONSUMER RIGHTS TO ACCESS INFORMATION.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to rules prescribed by the Agency, a covered person shall 11 make available to a consumer information in the control or possession of the covered person 12 concerning the consumer financial product or service that the consumer obtained from such 13 covered person including information relating to any transaction, series of transactions, or to the 14 account including costs, charges and usage data. The information shall be made available in an 15 electronic form usable by consumers.

16 (b) EXCEPTIONS.—A covered person shall not be required by this section to make 17 available to the consumer—

18 (1) any confidential commercial information, including an algorithm used to 19 derive credit scores or other risk scores or predictors;

20 (2) any information collected by the covered person for the purpose of preventing 21 fraud or money laundering, or detecting, or making any report regarding other unlawful 22 or potentially unlawful conduct;

23 (3) any information required to be kept confidential by any other law; or

1 (4) any information that the covered person cannot retrieve in the ordinary course 2 of its business with respect to that information.

3 (c) NO DUTY TO MAINTAIN RECORDS.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to 4 impose any duty on a covered person to maintain or keep any information about a consumer.

5 (d) STANDARDIZED FORMATS FOR DATA.—The Agency, by rule, shall prescribe standards 6 applicable to covered persons to promote the development and use of standardized formats for 7 information, including through the use of machine readable files, to be made available to 8 consumers under this section.

9 (e) CONSULTATION AND COORDINATION.—The Agency shall, when prescribing any rule 10 under this section, consult and coordinate with the Federal banking agencies and the Federal 11 Trade Commission to ensure that the rules—

12 (1) impose substantively similar requirements on covered persons;

13 (2) take into account conditions under which covered persons do business both in 14 the United States and in other countries; and 15 (3) do not require or promote the use of any particular technology in order to 16 develop systems for compliance.

17 SEC. 1039. PROHIBITED ACTS.

18 It shall be unlawful for any person to—

19 (1) advertise, market, offer, sell, enforce, or attempt to enforce, any term, 20 agreement, change in terms, fee or charge in connection with a consumer financial 21 product or service that is not in conformity with this title or applicable rule or order 22 issued by the Agency;

23 (2) fail or refuse to permit access to or copying of records, or fail or refuse to

1 establish or maintain records, or fail or refuse to make reports or provide information to 2 the Agency, as required by this title, an enumerated consumer law, or pursuant to the 3 authorities transferred by subtitles F and H, or any rule or order issued by the Agency 4 thereunder; or

5 (3) knowingly or recklessly provide substantial assistance to another person in 6 violation of the provisions of section 1031, or any rule or order issued under thereunder, 7 and any such person shall be deemed to be in violation of that section to the same extent 8 as the person to whom such assistance is provided.

9 SEC. 1040. EFFECTIVE DATE.

10 This subtitle shall become effective on the designated transfer date.

11 Subtitle D—Preservation of State Law

12 SEC. 1041. RELATION TO STATE LAW.

13 (a) IN GENERAL.—

14 (1) This title does not annul, alter, or affect, or exempt any person subject to the 15 provisions of this title from complying with, the laws, regulations, orders, or 16 interpretations, in effect in any State, except to the extent that such statute, regulation, 17 order, or interpretation is inconsistent with the provisions of this title and then only to the 18 extent of the inconsistency.

19 (2) GREATER PROTECTION UNDER STATE LAW.—For the purposes of this 20 subsection, a State statute, regulation, order, or interpretation is not inconsistent with the 21 provisions of this title if the protection such statute, regulation, order, or interpretation 22 affords consumers is greater than the protection provided under this title, as determined

1 by the Agency. A determination regarding whether a State statute, regulation, order, or 2 interpretation is inconsistent with the provisions of this title may be made by rule, order
3 or guidance adopted by the Agency on its own motion or in response to a non-frivolous 4 petition initiated by any interested person.

5 (b) RELATION TO OTHER PROVISIONS OF ENUMERATED CONSUMER LAWS THAT RELATE TO 6 STATE LAW.—Nothing in this title, except as provided in section 1075, shall be construed to 7 modify, limit, or supersede the operation of any provision of an enumerated consumer law that 8 relates to the application of State law with respect to such Federal law.

9 SEC. 1042. PRESERVATION OF ENFORCEMENT POWERS OF STATES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—

11 (1) Any State attorney general may bring a civil action in the name of such State, 12 as parens patriae on behalf of natural persons residing in such State, in any district court 13 of the United States or State court having jurisdiction of the defendant, to secure 14 monetary or equitable relief for violation of any provisions of this title or regulations 15 issued thereunder.

16 (2) Nothing in this title shall be construed to modify, limit or supersede the 17 operation of any provision of an enumerated consumer law that relates to the authority of 18 a State attorney general or State regulator to enforce such Federal law.

19 (b) CONSULTATION REQUIRED.—

20 (1) Before initiating any action in a court or other administrative or regulatory 21 proceeding against any covered person to enforce any provision of this title, including 22 any rule prescribed by the Agency thereunder, a State attorney general or State regulator 23 shall timely provide a copy of the complete complaint to be filed and written notice

1 describing such action or proceeding to the Agency, or the Agency’s designee. If prior 2 notice is not practicable, the State attorney general or State regulator shall provide a copy 3 of the complete complaint and the notice to the Agency immediately upon instituting the 4 action or proceeding. The notification required under this section shall, at a minimum, 5 describe:

6 (A) the identity of the parties;

7 (B) the alleged facts underlying the proceeding; and 8 (C) whether there may be a need to coordinate the prosecution of the 9 proceeding so as not to interfere with any action, including any rule making, 10 undertaken by the Agency or another Federal agency.

11 (2) In any action described in paragraph (1), the Agency may—

12 (A) intervene in the action as a party;

13 (B) upon intervening—

14 (i) remove the action to the appropriate United States district court,

8 accomplished and such person refuses to surrender such material, the Agency, through 9 such officers or attorneys as it may designate, may file, in the district court of the United 10 States for any judicial district in which such person resides, is found, or transacts 11 business, and serve upon such person, a petition for an order of such court for the 12 enforcement of this section.

13 (2) SERVICE OF PROCESS.—All process of any court to which application may be 14 made as provided in this subsection may be served in any judicial district.

15 (e) PETITION FOR ORDER MODIFYING OR SETTING ASIDE DEMAND.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 20 days after the service of any civil 17 investigative demand upon any person under subsection (b), or at any time before the 18 return date specified in the demand, whichever period is shorter, or within such period 19 exceeding 20 days after service or in excess of such return date as may be prescribed in 20 writing, subsequent to service, by any Agency investigator named in the demand, such 21 person may file with the Agency a petition for an order by the Agency modifying or 22 setting aside the demand.

23 (2) COMPLIANCE DURING PENDENCY.—The time permitted for compliance with

1 the demand in whole or in part, as deemed proper and ordered by the Agency, shall not 2 run during the pendency of such petition at the Agency, except that such person shall 3 comply with any portions of the demand not sought to be modified or set aside.

4 (3) SPECIFIC GROUNDS.—Such petition shall specify each ground upon which the 5 petitioner relies in seeking such relief, and may be based upon any failure of the demand 6 to comply with the provisions of this section, or upon any constitutional or other legal 7 right or privilege of such person.

8 (f) CUSTODIAL CONTROL.—At any time during which any custodian is in custody or 9 control of any documentary material, tangible things, reports, answers to questions, or transcripts 10 of oral testimony given by any person in compliance with any civil investigative demand, such 11 person may file, in the district court of the United States for the judicial district within which the 12 office of such custodian is situated, and serve upon such custodian, a petition for an order of such 13 court requiring the performance by such custodian of any duty imposed upon him by this section 14 or rule promulgated by the Agency.

15 (g) JURISDICTION OF COURT.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—Whenever any petition is filed in any district court of the 17 United States under this section, such court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine 18 the matter so presented, and to enter such order or orders as may be required to carry into 19 effect the provisions of this section.

20 (2) APPEAL.—Any final order so entered shall be subject to appeal pursuant to 21 section 1291 of title 28, United States Code.

22 SEC. 1053. HEARINGS AND ADJUDICATION PROCEEDINGS.

23 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Agency is authorized to conduct hearings and adjudication

1 proceedings with respect to any person in the manner prescribed by chapter 5 of title 5, United 2 States Code in order to ensure or enforce compliance with—

3 (1) the provisions of this title, including any rules prescribed by the Agency under 4 this title; and

5 (2) any other Federal law that the Agency is authorized to enforce, including an 6 enumerated consumer law, and any regulations or order prescribed thereunder, unless 7 such Federal law specifically limits the Agency from conducting a hearing or 8 adjudication proceeding and only to the extent of such limitation.

9 (b) SPECIAL RULES FOR CEASE-AND-DESIST PROCEEDINGS.—

10 (1) IN GENERAL.—If, in the opinion of the Agency, any covered person is 11 engaging or has engaged in an activity that violates a law, rule, or any condition imposed 12 in writing on the person by the Agency, the Agency may issue and serve upon the person 13 a notice of charges in respect thereof. The notice shall contain a statement of the facts 14 constituting the alleged violation or violations and shall fix a time and place at which a 15 hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist there from should 16 issue against the person. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not earlier than 30 days 17 nor later than 60 days after service of such notice unless an earlier or a later date is set by 18 the Agency at the request of any party so served. Unless the party or parties so served 19 shall appear at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, they shall be 20 deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease-and-desist order. In the event of 21 such consent, or if upon the record made at any such hearing, the Agency shall find that 22 any violation specified in the notice of charges has been established, the Agency may 23 issue and serve upon the person an order to cease and desist from any such violation or

1 practice. Such order may, by provisions which may be mandatory or otherwise, require 2 the person to cease and desist from the same, and, further, to take affirmative action to 3 correct the conditions resulting from any such violation.

4 (2) EFFECTIVENESS OF ORDER.—A cease-and-desist order shall become effective 5 at the expiration of 30 days after the service of such order upon the covered person 6 concerned (except in the case of a cease-and-desist order issued upon consent, which 7 shall become effective at the time specified therein), and shall remain effective and 8 enforceable as provided therein, except to such extent as it is stayed, modified, 9 terminated, or set aside by action of the Agency or a reviewing court.

10 (3) DECISION AND APPEAL.—Any hearing provided for in this subsection shall be 11 held in the Federal judicial district or in the territory in which the residence or home 12 office of the person is located unless the person consents to another place, and shall be 13 conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 5 of title 5 of the United States
14 Code. After such hearing, and within 90 days after the Agency has notified the parties 15 that the case has been submitted to it for final decision, it shall render its decision (which 16 shall include findings of fact upon which its decision is predicated) and shall issue and 17 serve upon each party to the proceeding an order or orders consistent with the provisions 18 of this section. Judicial review of any such order shall be exclusively as provided in this 19 subsection. Unless a petition for review is timely filed in a court of appeals of the United 20 States, as hereinafter provided in paragraph (4), and thereafter until the record in the 21 proceeding has been filed as so provided, the Agency may at any time, upon such notice 22 and in such manner as it shall deem proper, modify, terminate, or set aside any such 23 order. Upon such filing of the record, the Agency may modify, terminate, or set aside

1 any such order with permission of the court.

2 (4) APPEAL TO COURT OF APPEALS.—Any party to any proceeding under this 3 subsection may obtain a review of any order served pursuant to this subsection (other 4 than an order issued with the consent of the person concerned) by the filing in the court
5 of appeals of the United States for the circuit in which the principal office of the covered 6 person is located, or in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia
7 Circuit, within 30 days after the date of service of such order, a written petition praying 8 that the order of the Agency be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of such 9 petition shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of the court to the Agency, and 10 thereupon the Agency shall file in the court the record in the proceeding, as provided in 11 section 2112 of title 28 of the United States Code. Upon the filing of such petition, such 12 court shall have jurisdiction, which upon the filing of the record shall except as provided 13 in the last sentence of paragraph (3) be exclusive, to affirm, modify, terminate, or set 14 aside, in whole or in part, the order of the agency. Review of such proceedings shall be 15 had as provided in chapter 7 of title 5 of the United States Code. The judgment and 16 decree of the court shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the 17 Supreme Court upon certiorari, as provided in section 1254 of title 28 of the United 18 States Code.

19 (5) NO STAY.—The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under 20 paragraph (4) shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of any 21 order issued by the agency.

22 (c) SPECIAL RULES FOR TEMPORARY CEASE-AND-DESIST PROCEEDINGS.—

23 (1) IN GENERAL.—Whenever the Agency determines that the violation specified

1 in the notice of charges served upon a person pursuant to subsection (b), or the 2 continuation thereof, is likely to cause the person to be insolvent or otherwise prejudice 3 the interests of consumers before the completion of the proceedings conducted pursuant 4 to subsection (b), the Agency may issue a temporary order requiring the covered person 5 to cease and desist from any such violation or practice and to take affirmative action to 6 prevent or remedy such insolvency or other condition pending completion of such 7 proceedings. Such order may include any requirement authorized under this subtitle.
8 Such order shall become effective upon service upon the person and, unless set aside, 9 limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings authorized by paragraph (2) of this 10 subsection, shall remain effective and enforceable pending the completion of the 11 administrative proceedings pursuant to such notice and until such time as the Agency 12 shall dismiss the charges specified in such notice, or if a cease-and-desist order is issued 13 against the person, until the effective date of such order.

14 (2) APPEAL.—Within 10 days after the person concerned has been served with a 15 temporary cease-and-desist order, the person may apply to the United States district court 16 for the judicial district in which the home office of the covered person is located, or the 17 United States District Court for the District of Columbia, for an injunction setting aside, 18 limiting, or suspending the enforcement, operation, or effectiveness of such order 19 pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice of 20 charges served upon the person under subsection (b), and such court shall have 21 jurisdiction to issue such injunction.

22 (3) INCOMPLETE OR INACCURATE RECORDS.—

23 (A) TEMPORARY ORDER.—If a notice of charges served under subsection

1 (b) specifies, on the basis of particular facts and circumstances, that a person's 2 books and records are so incomplete or inaccurate that the Agency is unable to 3 determine the financial condition of that person or the details or purpose of any 4 transaction or transactions that may have a material effect on the financial 5 condition of that person, the Agency may issue a temporary order requiring—

6 (i) the cessation of any activity or practice which gave rise, 7 whether in whole or in part, to the incomplete or inaccurate state of the 8 books or records; or

9 (ii) affirmative action to restore such books or records to a 10 complete and accurate state, until the completion of the proceedings under 11 subsection (b)(1).

12 (B) EFFECTIVE PERIOD.—Any temporary order issued under subparagraph

13 (A)—

14 (i) shall become effective upon service; and

15 (ii) unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in 16 proceedings under paragraph (2), shall remain in effect and enforceable 17 until the earlier of—

18 (I) the completion of the proceeding initiated under 19 subsection (b) in connection with the notice of charges; or

20 (II) the date the Agency determines, by examination or 21 otherwise, that the person's books and records are accurate and 22 reflect the financial condition of the person.

23 (d) SPECIAL RULES FOR ENFORCEMENT OF ORDERS.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Agency may in its discretion apply to the United States 2 district court within the jurisdiction of which the principal office of the covered person is 3 located, for the enforcement of any effective and outstanding notice or order issued under 4 this section, and such court shall have jurisdiction and power to order and require 5 compliance herewith.

6 (2) EXCEPTION.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, no court shall 7 have jurisdiction to affect by injunction or otherwise the issuance or enforcement of any 8 notice or order or to review, modify, suspend, terminate, or set aside any such notice or 9 order.

10 (e) RULES.—The Agency shall prescribe rules establishing such procedures as may be 11 necessary to carry out this section.

12 SEC. 1054. LITIGATION AUTHORITY.

13 (a) IN GENERAL.—If any person violates a provision of this title, any enumerated 14 consumer law, any law for which authorities were transferred under subtitles F and H, or any rule 15 or order prescribed by the Agency thereunder, then the Agency may commence a civil action 16 against such person to impose a civil penalty or to seek all appropriate legal or equitable relief 17 including a permanent or temporary injunction as permitted by law.

18 (b) REPRESENTATION.—The Agency may act in its own name and through its own 19 attorneys in enforcing any provision of this title, rules thereunder, or any other law or regulation, 20 or in any action, suit, or proceeding to which the Agency is a party.

21 (c) COMPROMISE OF ACTIONS.—The Agency may compromise or settle any action if such 22 compromise is approved by the court.

23 (d) NOTICE TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.—When commencing a civil action under this

1 title, any enumerated consumer law, any law for which authorities were transferred under 2 subtitles F and H, or any rule thereunder, the Agency shall notify the Attorney General.

3 (e) APPEARANCE BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT.—The Agency may represent itself in its 4 own name before the Supreme Court of the United States, provided that the Agency makes a 5 written request to the Attorney General within the 10-day period which begins on the date of 6 entry of the judgment which would permit any party to file a petition for writ of certiorari, and 7 the Attorney General concurs with such request or fails to take action within 60 days of the 8 Agency’s request.

9 (f) FORUM.—Any civil action brought under this title may be brought in a United States 10 district court or in any court of competent jurisdiction of a state in a district in which the 11 defendant is located or resides or is doing business, and such court shall have jurisdiction to 12 enjoin such person and to require compliance with this title, any enumerated consumer law, any 13 law for which authorities were transferred under subtitles F and H, or rule or order of the Agency 14 thereunder.

15 (g) TIME FOR BRINGING ACTION.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise permitted by law, no action may be 17 brought under this title more than 3 years after the violation to which an action relates.

18 (2) LIMITATIONS UNDER OTHER FEDERAL LAWS.—

19 (A) For purposes of this section, an action arising under this title shall not 20 include claims arising solely under enumerated consumer laws.

21 (B) In any action arising solely under an enumerated consumer law, the 22 Agency may commence, defend, or intervene in the action in accordance with the 23 requirements of that law, as applicable.

1 (C) In any action arising solely under the laws for which authorities were 2 transferred by subtitles F and H, the Agency may commence, defend, or intervene 3 in the action in accordance with the requirements of that law, as applicable

4 SEC. 1055. RELIEF AVAILABLE.

5 (a) ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS OR COURT ACTIONS.—

6 (1) JURISDICTION.—The court (or Agency, as the case may be) in an action or 7 adjudication proceeding brought under this title, any enumerated consumer law, or any 8 law for which authorities were transferred by subtitles F and H, shall have jurisdiction to 9 grant any appropriate legal or equitable relief with respect to a violation of this title, any 10 enumerated consumer law, and any law for which authorities were transferred by 11 subtitles F and H, including a violation of a rule or order prescribed under this title, any 12 enumerated consumer law and any law for which authorities were transferred by subtitles 13 F and H.

14 (2) RELIEF.—Such relief may include and without limitation—

15 (A) rescission or reformation of contracts;

16 (B) refund of moneys or return of real property;

17 (C) restitution;

18 (D) compensation for unjust enrichment;

19 (E) payment of damages;

20 (F) public notification regarding the violation, including the costs of 21 notification;

22 (G) limits on the activities or functions of the person; and 23 (H) civil money penalties, as set forth more fully in subsection (d).

1 (3) NO EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.—Nothing in this subsection shall be 2 construed as authorizing the imposition of exemplary or punitive damages.

3 (b) RECOVERY OF COSTS.—In any action brought by the Agency to enforce any provision 4 of this title, any enumerated consumer law, any law for which authorities were transferred by 5 subtitles F and H, or any rule or order prescribed by the Agency thereunder, the Agency may 6 recover its costs in connection with prosecuting such action if the Agency is the prevailing party 7 in the action.

8 (c) CIVIL MONEY PENALTY IN COURT AND ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS.—

9 (1) Any person that violates any provision of this title, any enumerated consumer 10 law, or any rule or order prescribed under this title shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty 11 pursuant to this subsection.

12 (A) FIRST TIER.—For any violation of a final order or condition imposed 13 in writing by the Agency, a civil penalty shall not exceed $5,000 for each day 14 during which such violation continues.

15 (B) SECOND TIER.—Notwithstanding paragraph (A), for any violation of a 16 rule prescribed under section 1036 or for any person that recklessly engages in a 17 violation of this title, any enumerated consumer law, or any rule or order 18 prescribed under this title, relating to the provision of an alternative consumer 19 financial product or service, a civil penalty shall not exceed $25,000 for each day 20 during which such violation continues.

21 (C) THIRD TIER.—Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A) and (B), for any 22 person that knowingly violates this title, any enumerated consumer law, or a rule 23 or order prescribed under this title, a civil penalty shall not exceed $1,000,000 for

1 each day during which such violation continues.

2 (2) MITIGATING FACTORS.—In determining the amount of any penalty assessed 3 under paragraph (1), the Agency or the court shall take into account the appropriateness 4 of the penalty with respect to—

5 (A) the size of financial resources and good faith of the person charged;

6 (B) the gravity of the violation;

7 (C) the severity of the risks to or losses of the consumer, which may take 8 into account the number of products or services sold or provided;

9 (D) the history of previous violations; and 10 (E) such other matters as justice may require.

11 (3) AUTHORITY TO MODIFY OR REMIT PENALTY.—The Agency may compromise, 12 modify, or remit any penalty which may be assessed or had already been assessed under 13 paragraph (1). The amount of such penalty, when finally determined, shall be exclusive 14 of any sums owed by the person to the United States in connection with the costs of the 15 proceeding, and may be deducted from any sums owing by the United States to the 16 person charged.

17 (4) NOTICE AND HEARING.—No civil penalty may be assessed with respect to a 18 violation of this title, any enumerated consumer law, or any rule or order prescribed by 19 the Agency, unless—

20 (A) the Agency gives notice and an opportunity for a hearing to the person 21 accused of the violation; or

22 (B) the appropriate court has ordered such assessment and entered 23 judgment in favor of the Agency.

1 SEC. 1056. REFERRALS FOR CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

2 Whenever the Agency obtains evidence that any person, either domestic or foreign, has 3 engaged in conduct that may constitute a violation of Federal criminal law, the Agency shall 4 have the power to transmit such evidence to the Attorney General, who may institute criminal 5 proceedings under appropriate law. Nothing in this section affects any other authority of the 6 Agency to disclose information.

7 SEC. 1057. EMPLOYEE PROTECTION.

8 (a) IN GENERAL.—No person shall terminate or in any other way discriminate against, or 9 cause to be terminated or discriminated against, any employee or any authorized representative 10 of employees by reason of the fact that such employee or representative has provided 11 information to the Agency, filed, instituted or caused to be filed or instituted any proceeding 12 under this title, any enumerated consumer law, or any law for which authorities were transferred 13 by subtitles F and H, or has testified or is about to testify in any proceeding resulting from the 14 administration or enforcement of the provisions of this title.

15 (b) AGENCY REVIEW OF TERMINATION.—Any employee or representative of employees 16 who believes that he has been terminated or otherwise discriminated against by any person in 17 violation of subsection (a) may, within 45 days after such alleged violation occurs, apply to the 18 Agency for review of such termination or alleged discrimination. A copy of the application shall 19 be sent to such person, who shall be the respondent. Upon receipt of such application, the 20 Agency shall cause such investigation to be made as the Agency deems appropriate. Such 21 investigation shall provide an opportunity for a public hearing at the request of any party to such 22 review to enable the parties to present information relating to such alleged violation. The parties 23 shall be given written notice of the time and place of the hearing at least five days prior to the

1 hearing. Any such hearing shall be of record and shall be subject to section 554 of title 5, United 2 States Code. Upon receiving the report of such investigation, the Agency shall make findings of 3 fact. If the Agency finds that there is sufficient evidence in the record to conclude that such a 4 violation did occur, the Agency shall issue a decision, incorporating an order therein and the 5 Agency's findings, requiring the party committing such violation to take such affirmative action 6 to abate the violation as the Agency deems appropriate, including reinstating or rehiring the 7 employee or representative of employees to the former position with compensation. If the 8 Agency finds insufficient evidence to support the allegations made in the application, the Agency 9 shall deny the application. An order issued by the Agency under this subsection (b) shall be 10 subject to judicial review in the same manner as orders and decisions are subject to judicial 11 review under this title or any enumerated consumer law.

12 (c) COSTS AND EXPENSES.—Whenever an order is issued under this section to abate such 13 violation, at the request of the applicant a sum equal to the aggregate amount of all costs and 14 expenses (including attorney's fees) determined by the Agency to have been reasonably incurred 15 by the applicant for, or in connection with, the application and prosecution of such proceedings 16 shall be assessed against the person committing such violation.

17 (d) EXCEPTION.—This section shall not apply to any employee who acting without 18 discretion from his or her employer (or the employer's agent) deliberately violates any 19 requirement of this title or any enumerated consumer law.
